

Girl Protection

Girl Protection is the term used by Girl Guides of Canada to refer to issues related to Child Abuse, Self-harm and Mental Health Issues, and Bullying. This information is presented in Module 4 of the Member Support Procedures. The complete module can be accessed by logging in to www.girlguides.ca and entering MemberZone. From there click on Unit Guider to Membership Support to Module 4 which is all about girl Protection.

Two quick references have been included in this module and are available directly by clicking on this link: <http://forms.girlguides.ca/default.aspx>

Nova Scotia, like most other provinces in Canada, has a Girl Protection Specialist who is available to answer any questions or help you with any concerns you have on these topics. She is also available for training in your Area or District. Currently this position is held by Elizabeth Buffett and she may be reached at Elizabeth.buffett@seasidehighspeed.com
